

5th AMSE Summer School

Discounting, Risk, and the Environment

PROGRAM

June 10-12, 2024

Venue: AMU/AMSE, 5 boulevard Maurice Bourdet, Marseille - Room 21

Web app: <https://amse.app>

Monday, June 10

8:30am - 8:55am	Welcome coffee and registration [Ground floor]
8:55am - 9:00am	Welcome speech by Céline Poilly
9:00am - 10:30am	Course “Benefits of climate change policies versus long term uncertain damages” Christian GOLLIER, Toulouse School of Economics
10:30am - 11:00am	Coffee break [Ground floor]
11:00am - 12:30pm	Course “Benefits of climate change policies versus long term uncertain damages” Christian GOLLIER, Toulouse School of Economics
12:30pm - 1:30pm	Lunch [Ground floor]
1:30pm - 2:30pm	Course “Benefits of climate change policies versus long term uncertain damages” Christian GOLLIER, Toulouse School of Economics
2:30pm - 4:00pm	Students’ presentations (30 minutes per paper) 1. How to advise a (slightly) biased agent Joshua BIßBORT, RPTU Kaiserslautern-Landau 2. Cap and Trade vs Tradable Performance Standard: A comparison for Europe and China Anne ERNST, Deutsche Bundesbank 3. Gaming the Carbon Credit Market Frederik HOLTEL, RPTU Kaiserslautern-Landau
5:00pm - 6:20pm	City tour of Marseille (Touristic train) Meeting point: 174 Quai du port, 13002 Marseille
6:20pm - 7:00pm	Free time
7:00pm	Dinner “Les Grandes Halles du Vieux-Port”, 30 Cours Honoré d'Estienne d'Orves, 13001 Marseille

Aix-Marseille School of Economics is a department of the Faculty of Economics and Management, Aix-Marseille University

5th AMSE Summer School

Discounting, Risk, and the Environment

Tuesday, June 11

9:00am - 11:00am	Course “Social Discounting: Environment, Inequality and other determinants of well-being” Ben GROOM , University of Exeter Business School
11:00am - 11:30am	Coffee break [Ground floor]
11:30am - 1:30pm	Course “Social Discounting: Environment, Inequality and other determinants of well-being” Ben GROOM , University of Exeter Business School
1:30pm - 2:30pm	Lunch [Ground floor]
2:30pm - 3:30pm	Students’ presentations (30 minutes per paper) 1. Dasgupta meets Nordhaus: Natural Capital Dynamics in Integrated Assessment of Climate Change Malin WIESE , Leipzig University 2. Preventing Coalitions Breakdowns in International Fishery Agreements Guillaume BATAILLE , Aix-Marseille University, AMSE
3:30pm - 4:00pm	Coffee break [Ground floor]
4:00pm - 5:00pm	Students’ presentations (30 minutes per paper) 3. Expanding Community-based Adaptation - Experimental Evidence from Papua New Guinea Juliane KOCH , Universität Hamburg 4. Diversion Research Mathis PRETI , Aix-Marseille University, AMSE
7:30pm	Dinner “Rowing Club Restaurant”, 34 Boulevard Charles Livon, 13007 Marseille

Aix-Marseille School of Economics is a department of the Faculty of Economics and Management, Aix-Marseille University

5th AMSE Summer School

Discounting, Risk, and the Environment

Wednesday, June 12

9:00am - 11:00am	Course “Discounting in public policy” Aude POMMERET, Université de Savoie Mont Blanc, France Stratégie
11:00am - 11:30am	Coffee break [Ground floor]
11:30am - 1:00pm	Course “Discounting in public policy” Aude POMMERET, Université de Savoie Mont Blanc, France Stratégie
1:00pm - 2:00pm	Lunch [Ground floor]
2:00pm - 3:30pm	Course “The influence of emotions, temporality and inequalities in environmental impact assessment” Olivier CHANEL, CNRS, AMSE
3:30pm - 4:30pm	Students’ presentations (30 minutes per paper) 1. Cross Elasticities in Dual Discounting: Evidence from a Multiple Price List Approach Simon DISQUE, University of Hamburg 2. Weather shocks and delegation of authority in land decision making: Evidence from Malawi Natalia LABRADOR BERNATE, Aix-Marseille University, AMSE

Aix-Marseille School of Economics is a department of the Faculty of Economics and Management, Aix-Marseille University